The Manifesto of Jordan Peterson

Always place your becoming above your current being

Don't be a slave to stupid rules

Face the demands of life voluntarily, respond to challenges instead of bracing for catastrophe

It took untold generations
to get you where you are the successful among us delay gratification and bargain with the future

Pursue
what is meaningful
not what is expedient

If you don't stand your ground, people will push you backwards

Tough men are dangerous,

what weak
men are capable of

Opportunity lurks
where responsibility
had been abdicated

If you are not
a fool,
you can't
become a master
